TPS GROUP: STOCK IN TPS AEROSPACE ENGINEERING RISES TO 100%

Gallarate (VA), 07 December 2017 – TPS (TPS: IM), operational holding of the TPS Group, leading company in technical services and engineering for the aeronautical industry, has now increased its shareholding in the company TPS Aerospace Engineering S.r.l., a company established in 2015 and operating in the design, certification and production of parts and componentry for the aeronautical industry, from 70% to 100%, buying up the minority holdings from the 3 managers of the company.

Based on previous agreements, the managers sold their TPS shares at face value (for a total of 3,000) and they will continue to work seamlessly with TPS Aerospace Engineering although with incentives other than share ownership.

With this operation, TPS has continued with the reduction in its minority shareholdings, a strategy that began early in the year with the buy up of share packages in controlled companies NEOS S.r.l. and Aviotrace Swiss SA.
